Dan Roy is a graduate of the San Francisco SPCA Academy for Dog Trainers. He earned his Certificate in Training and Counseling (CTC), with honors, under the tutelage of world renowned trainer, Jean Donaldson – author of The Culture Clash

Jean Donaldson said of Dan:
“For me, you epitomize the trainer of the future. You’re smart, mechanically able, spongy, but questioning, and have the teaching chops that – oh! Would we have killed for a generation ago.”

Dan is a Certified Professional Dog Trainer and a member of the Association of Professional Dog Trainers (APDT). Dan promotes a reward-based system of training. His approach to training is dog-friendly, but not over indulgent. “Setting boundaries for our dogs encourages a working relationship with them.” He stays on top of the latest developments in science-based training and client coaching by regularly attending workshops and seminars.

Actively training and competing since 1997, Dan and his Australian Shepherds have earned some of the highest titles in Dog Agility. Out thinking an Aussie is no easy task. It requires boundless energy and an unwavering, upbeat attitude – qualities that come naturally to Dan. In fact, his closest friends suspect that he’s so good at his job because deep down, he’s a herder too.

Kim Wilson has been training dogs for almost 4 decades, getting her start in obedience with Siberian Huskies. After earning CDXs and garnering High in Trials and Dog World Awards along the way, she decided to switch breeds and acquired her first Belgian Sheepdog in the late 1980s.

Kim has exhibited in a variety of different arenas, including; conformation, obedience, rally, herding, and tracking. Finally, 13 years ago she landed on agility, which has now become her sole passion. Her Belgian Sheepdogs and Pyrenean Shepherd have earned multiple MACH’s, C-ATCH’s, NATCH’s, and exhibited numerous times at Nationals and AKC Invitationals, where they have been Medallion and Round winners.

Kim is now teaching agility. Her desire is to help students create an even deeper bond with their dogs through positive training methods and by developing a clear and concise ‘language’. She hopes to bring the same sense of exhilaration and connection which she has experienced to her students, that they may become as enthusiastic toward the sport as she is.
